We Exist For You! –

The PC(USA) Czech Mission

Network is an association of PC(USA) members, congregations, and institutions interested in relational mission partnerships study experiences, and youth connections with people, congregations, and institutions of the ECCB (Evangelical Church of the Czech Brethren), like their seminary or Diaconial Centers.

The CzMN (the Czech Mission Network) exists for the purpose of promoting, encouraging, and supporting faith-based relational partnerships between the Presbyterian Church–USA (PC(USA)) and the Evangelical Church of the Czech Brethren (ECCB).

And Your Relational Mission Partnerships

Are you interested in exploring or beginning a relational partnership in the Czech Republic?

Are you currently participating in a faith-based mission partnership?

Did you answer “Yes” to either of these questions? We invite you to join the Czech Mission Network.

To join, contact:

jody@czechconnections.org

Membership is free.

The Network exists for you.

The Network helps its members:

- Gather and share information, experiences, and wisdom relating to international partnerships.
- Make and maximize contact with partners.
- Invite individuals and small church groups into sharing partnership experiences.
- Develop new partnerships and support existing ones.
- Provide both spiritual and organizational support for all partners in mission.
- Discover mission opportunities we can share with our partners.

The Czech Mission Network's website is a place where members can share stories of their partnerships, find information and support materials for starting, growing and developing partnerships, for understanding Czech culture, language and history, including church history or find out about special events or opportunities.

The CzMN has two social networking groups on Mission Crossroads PCUSA.

Czech Mission Network (CzMN) is a networking place for individuals, congregations, and institutions interested in relational mission partnerships, study experiences, and youth connections in the Czech Republic and is open to all.

CzMN Leadership Team is a networking place for members of the Leadership Team and the Leadership Team's Executive Committee.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH
of the CZECH BRETHREN (ECCB)
American Working Group

Within the ECCB in the Czech Republic, there is a counterpart to our Czech Mission Network. The American Working Group is a team of pastors, elders and ecumenical relations workers from various churches and the ECCB Synodical office in Prague.

The connection between the PC(USA), ECCB, the Czech Mission Network and the American Working Group insures a helpful presence for the partnerships.

We welcome your participation!

Join us in supporting one another in our efforts to connect the Body of Christ in the USA and the Czech Republic.

We are working to provide new and innovative ways to:

Promote faith-based relational partnerships between the PC(USA) and the ECCB.

Encourage and support existing partnerships.

Increase communication and participation in the network by all of its members.

Representatives of various churches or presbyteries participating in the Czech Mission Network form the Leadership Team for mission network and the Leadership team's Executive Committee. The Network determines its leadership in an appropriate Presbyterian and democratic manner.

Current Executive Committee members are Rev. Jody Filipi, Elder Betty McGinnis, Rev. Tomáš Pištora, Rev. Barbara Renton, and Elder Roger Shoemaker.

The Mission Co- worker for the Czech Republic is the Rev. Dr. Karen Moritz.
